Curious about what 18 South Youth Center and PTC Youth Services accomplished in 2016? Take a look at our 2016 Annual Report!

We are thrilled to announce the addition of Sondra Tabeling as a member of our Board of Directors! Sondra was instrumental in the launching of 18 South Youth Center and devoted many years to volunteering. She works as a bookkeeper for Complete Bookkeeping Services/Altland & Associates in York and serves as an elder of The Brook in Red Lion. We are so grateful to have her as our Treasurer as of December 2016.

We are ecstatic to announce the addition of Paul Dauenbaugh as a member of our Board of Directors! Paul serves as the pastor of Pleasant View Brethren in Christ Church and is equipped with more than 15 years worth of experience working in youth ministry in church, para-church, rural, suburban, and urban settings. We are grateful that he joined our board in February 2017!

PTC Youth Services has elected its 2017 board officers! Corporal Keith Dyke of the York Area Regional Police Department has been elected President. Verna Price, a retiree of Adhesives Research in Glen Rock, Pa., has been elected Vice President. Sondra Tabeling, a bookkeeper for Complete Bookkeeping Services/Altland & Associates in York, has been elected Treasurer. Marilyn Carrigan, a retiree of the Pier One Imports management team, has been elected Secretary.
