

Happy Birthday to me! (Ray and Dee Stegeman)

Hi, everybody!

Today's my (Ray's) birthday! And it's a Saturday. We'll have some friends over for supper, but for right now, we're just enjoying a quiet day.

We thought now would be a good time to let you see where we live and the beautiful view we have.

But first, we thought we'd show you the huge asparagus that grows in Papua New Guinea! Just kidding, but it looks like it, doesn't it?

Ray and the Asparagus Stalk (a new twist on Jack and the Beanstalk!) :)

Our house, from the road. It's a duplex, and we live in the back half. The path leads to our door

The view from our front door - gorgeous, eh? Come visit us! Or better yet, come serve with us!

Love,

Ray & Dee Stegeman
